

FOR ALL MEN AND WOMEN

I will give you free a sample of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, that have brought health and happiness to thousands—also a book on any chronic disease you need.

The story of my free offer to you is quickly told. During my many years of practice I have used numerous combinations of curative medicines for liver ills. I have kept records of results in case after case, so that my staff of physicians and surgeons, at the Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y., are able to diagnose and treat cases at a distance with uniform good results. I am going to send you free a sample package of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, which will relieve biliousness and ill health due to a disordered liver. Write at once for a sample or a book.

But for the permanent relief of blood disorders and impurities, I can recommend my "Golden Medical Discovery"—a blood medicine without alcohol.—R. V. PIERCE, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Nature's Way Is The Best.

Buried deep in our American forest we find bloodroot, queen's root, mandrake and stone root, golden seal, Oregon grape root and cherrybark. Of these Dr. R. V. Pierce made a pure glyceric extract which has been favorably known for over forty years. He called it "GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY."

This "Discovery" purifies the blood and tones up the stomach and the entire system in Nature's own way. It's just the tissue builder and tonic you require.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, M. D.

Dr. Pierce says:—"Glycerine plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heartburn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gnawing feeling in stomach, biliousness and kindred derangements of the stomach, liver and bowels.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bronchial, throat and lung affections, except consumption, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient remedy, especially in those obstinate, hang-on-coughs caused by irritation and congestion of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Discovery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be expected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs, which, if neglected, or badly treated, lead up to consumption, it is the best medicine that can be taken." Sold by all principal dealers in medicines.

To find out more about the above mentioned diseases and all about the body in health and disease, get the Common Sense Medical Adviser—the People's Schoolmaster in Medicine—revised and up-to-date book of 1000 pages—which treats of diseased conditions and the practical, successful treatment thereof. Cloth-bound sent post-paid on receipt of 31 cents in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Address Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUST LA FRANCE GIVEN AMERICA

By France As a Token of Appreciation of Remembering Champlain.

NEW YORK, May 4.—Addressing the New York and Vermont Lake Champlain Tercentenary Commission Friday, Gabriel Hanotaux, who heads the French delegation, entrusted with the presentation of the bust "La France" to the United States, said in part: A few months ago, our eminent ambassador, Mr. Jussierand, who watches with such great competency everything that can draw the two countries together, had informed us of the early erection, upon the shores of Lake Champlain, of a monument in honor of our valiant countryman. He believed, and rightly, that France could not remain indifferent to this kind movement, which is a continuation of so many similar ones. But how should France manifest this gratitude, how should she participate in this glorification of one of her children?

Only an appeal to the public and an appeal to art could have sufficient power to answer. Through the efforts of the France-American Committee, which we represent here, the two simultaneous manifestations were produced. The French public understood and rapidly filled the lists, at the head of which it found the venerated name of Mr. Fallieres, President of the French Republic. At the same time, art had done its work, and Sculptor Rodin had conceived and executed the image of "France," which we had solicited from his genius.

It is this image that we bring here, in order that it may be sealed at the foot of the monument at Champlain, like a stamp and a seal, authenticating, once again, the fidelity of our common sentiments and of our souvenirs.

Economic relations, intellectual relations, social relations, artistic relations, in all these orders of things we work in the same direction, and it is to this initiative on our part that we ask you to respond by analogous sentiments and actions. We have come towards you in your turn, come towards us.

It is said, of American thought, that it is formulated in terms of action; to think in terms of action. Well! we have formulated our sentiment in terms of action by coming, twenty good companions, I dare say it, belonging to the various French activities, to bring you, for a great commemoration, a thing eminently French, a work of art.

We reflected maturely before taking this step, and we ask you to reflect on it in your turn. We have no official title, we are simply individuals; but we selected ourselves (if you will allow me this ambitious expression) in the hope of not being too unworthy of you and of your confidence.

There was a time when, in order to discover transatlantic lands, the first pioneers voluntarily left our shores; Champlain was the most glorious among those Frenchmen. Those were the volunteers of faith and of hope. There was a time when other volunteers left in order to serve a just and legitimate cause: those were the volunteers of Liberty and of Independence. Times have changed: the great works are accomplished. However, we also, we come spontaneously in order to maintain at least, what our ancestors did; and we are the volunteers of friendship!

On board a new steamer, and which is called "France," a French delegation come to thank you for honoring a Frenchman, brings you "France." Accept her! We beg of free America, sister of free France, to keep it as a souvenir of the past and as a pledge of the future. Forever, prosperity, greatness, happiness and glory to the great Republic of the United States of America!
